A MOTION was made by Tom Berglind to approve the temporary liquor license for April 6th. It was 2nd by Drew Schwan and the motion carried.

c) Baseball – The class A Mets baseball team out of Fargo would like to work with Sabin to add a baseball field in Sabin and be the Sabin Mets baseball team. They are a AA Red River amateur team with a mixed schedule of Minnesota and North Dakota teams. The city does not currently have the space to add a baseball field, we have 2 softball fields that do get use and we do not want to remove them. We are supportive of the team, but unfortunately do not have the space for a field. There is a land owner in the area that may be able to work something out with the club for space for the field, they will contact them. They are also looking into getting some corporate sponsors.
